VALOR WITH HONOR

"The Last Stories of these heroic men....."

*Independent film screening of "Valor with Honor," produced and directed by Burt Takeuchi.
Q&A session with filmmaker will follow the viewing of the film.*

"Valor with Honor" is a documentary on the last interviews of veterans from the 442nd Regimental Combat Team. This small unit of brigade strength was awarded the most decorations for its size and length of service in the history of the US Army.

The film follows the course of the 442nd during WWII. It starts with the incarceration of all Japanese and those of Japanese descent, training at Camp Shelby, Italian campaign, Lost Battalion Rescue, Mount Folgorito, witness to the Holocaust at Dachau Germany, and the 442nd's bittersweet return to America.
